

TOKENOMIC

Name: DataGen

Symbol: #DG.

Initial supply: 15,000,000 tokens

Limit supply: 30,000,000 tokens

Decimals: 18 decimals

Typology: ERC-20 later convertible into hard fork

15,000,000 #DG tokens as mining reservation: half of the supply will be 100% locked until 1st June 2024. Then, are gradually released, with an initial unlocking rate of 4560 #DG x day and an halving period of 1095 days. These tokens are meant as a reward for miners (once we shift to our native blockchain); since we can't set the mining logic until DataGen is an ERC-20 token, in the actual smart-contract the released #DG are given to all #DG HODLers, proportionally to the #DG they own. This distribution logic will stay in place until #DG token is an ERC-20. With a consensus mechanism we will change the distribution logic, shifting it from distributing the #DG (released by this smart-contract) to the HODLers to distributing them to the miners (according to the mining logic).
